FOREWORD

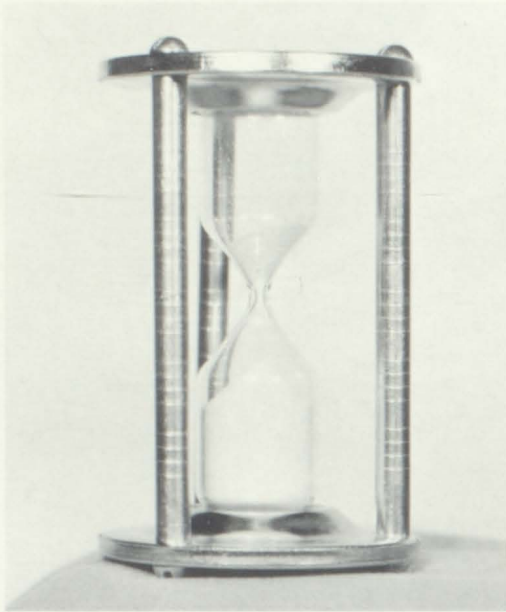

The ringing of the bells, the cheerful good mornings, the scurrying in the halls, your old friends and sweethearts — this is what we wish to recapture for you in the '66 Pinea.

SENIORS

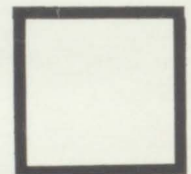

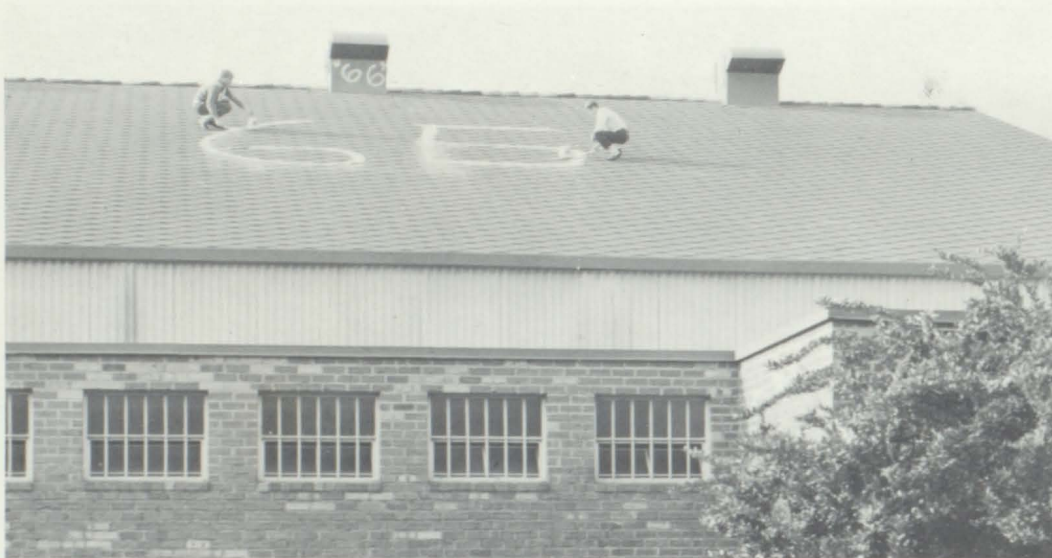

The hour is nearing its close — the mark will soon invert again — to mark the next “Hour of Our Youth” — These wonderful years — or was it minutes pondering the past, living the present, planning the future — stepping into the vast space of the unknown — leaving the familiar hallways of BHS — embarking on a great new adventure — where will this adventure lead? — the answer lies in the future — and the future, seniors, is yours.

Kindergarten Has Graduation

The Flagler County Kindergarten graduation exercises were held last Friday at 7:30 P. M. in the auditorium of the First Baptist Church.

Members of the graduating class, dressed in white caps and gowns, entered to the strains of a Processional played by Mrs. H. A. Eisenbach, kindergarten director. The invocation, delivered by Rev. L. E. Watkins, pastor of the First Methodist Church, was followed by individual and group recitations, songs and action verses performed by members of the class.

Mrs. Donnella Chastain, county superintendent of public instruction, commended the work of Mrs. Eisenbach and her assistant, Mrs. Pauline Lovelace, and expressed approval of the kindergarten in behalf of the county board of public instruction. Mrs. Eisenbach made a response, after which diplomas were presented each graduate by Mrs. Martin McDaniel, president of the Flagler County Kindergarten Organization. Benediction was pronounced by Rev. E. W. Ware, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and the program concluded with a "Good Night" song and recessional by the kindergarten graduates.

Members who received diplomas are Elizabeth Allen, Sara Baldwin, Margie Lee Blakely, Betty Lynn Bourne, Sue Ellen Deen, Judy Ann Dunson, Faye Durrance, Patsy Hosford, Emma Jean Lovelace, Polly Lowe, Sue McMillan, Mary McNab, Carol Pache, Brenda Tucker, Linda Way, Nell Atkinson, Jimmy Bratcher, Robbie Durrance, Benton Eisenbach, Ronnie Harris, Randy Henderson, Tommy Herr, Bill Kurtz, Robert McDaniel, Howard Pellicer, Stuart Rockett, Mike Rutherford, Martin Tucker, and Glenn Williams.

Ushers were Elaine Deen, Heidi Eisenbach, Emma Jo Henderson, Janice Lovelace, Mary Pache, Allita Tucker, Moses Atkinson, Mike McMillan, Ronny Rutherford, Harvey Way, and Don McNab.

senior class history

In May 1954, the twenty originals, plus a few others who fell along the wayside graduated from kindergarten—not with misty eyes but exuberant smiles. The faithful twenty are: Elizabeth Allen, Margie Blakely, Jimmy Bratcher, Betty Lynn Bourne, Sue Ellen Deen, Judy Dunson, Faye Durrance, Robby Durrance, Benton Eisenbach, Tommy Herr, Bill Kurtz, Jeana Lovelace, Butch McDaniel, Susan McMillan, Marilyn McNab, Carol Pache, Stuart Rockett, Brenda Tucker, Martin Tucker, and Linda Way.

The following September we began our hard long climb for education as we entered the first grade. To join our happy little throng came Rabeth Hersey, Sherry Hargett, David Spivey, Stanford Robertson, George Jarosz, Mack Pellicer, and Harvey Way. Mrs. Holland never thought that she would teach us a thing, but she did—at least enough to get us off her hands into the second grade.

From then on each teacher was glad to pass us on to the next. Through the way we had many new experiences and gained new students. They are: Richard Bullock, Larry Cox, John Mathews, Brenda Murray, Harry Bullock, and Marilyn McFarland.

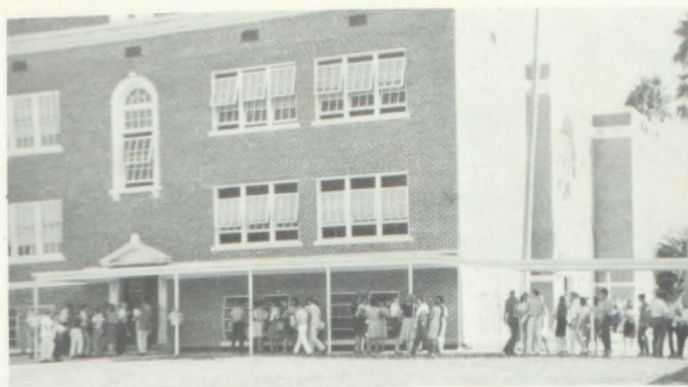

Junior High! When we hit the seventh grade, everyone said it would never be the same again—and it hasn't. Besides the seventh grade bringing lipstick and boyfriends it also brought us many friends from Flagler Beach. It brought: Joe May, Cotton May, Mike Tidwell, Ed Schatz, Margaret Hoskins, Kay Weaver. Others who also came were: Jerry Smith, Karen and Sharyn Abraham, and Fred Harris.

The eighth grade brought the headache of Algebra I to many of us, but we lived somehow! We were all very happy when our float placed third in the Homecoming Parade with the name "Bug 'em Bulldogs."

Little did we know in our high school, along with new experiences we would make new friends—Myrlene Henry, John Waterman and Belita Collins.

Our freshmen year came and we were in the stretch of our tedious course. Just three more years after this. Graduation wasn't too far off.

Our sophomore year brought many new experiences and pleasant memories. We really started saving in earnest now for the next year we had to do the prom. But we didn't live in a world of next year's dreams. With much work we made an over-size bulldog for the homecoming parade and placed second.

At last we were juniors. What a hectic year. Things started rolling. First our magazine drive which was very successful. Then the headache of Homecoming. How we worked in arranging everything plus our beautiful float which, of course, won first place. Just before Christmas our rings arrived. What a proud bunch we were. Instead of watching the teachers we looked at our hands. At last the Prom. Everyone worked so hard to make a really remarkable change in the gym. The outside was the same but the inside was like taking a fascinating trip to Rome.

Finally we are seniors. Many of us contemplated as the year went by whether we'd laugh or cry at graduation. We really didn't know till the long awaited night came. On May 27, 1966, solemn but proud seniors became alumni of ole B.H.S.

MR. AND MISS SENIOR

STUART ROCKETT

MARIYLN McNAB

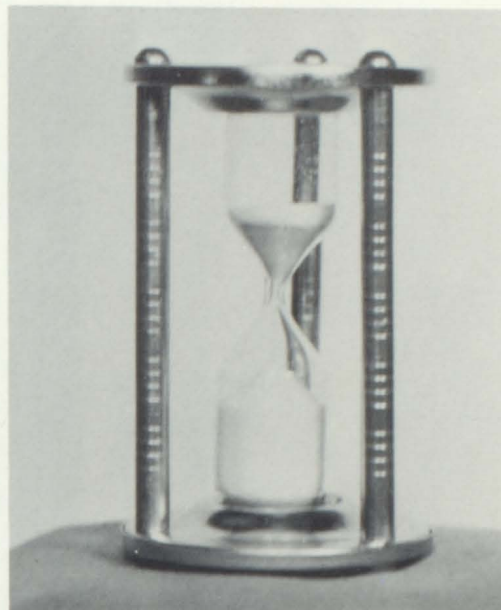

Half the hour is behind us — no longer lowest man on the totem pole — responsibilities of being upper classmen — realizing our abilities through PSAT — National Merit Scholarship Test — feverish excitement of decorating for the Prom — class rings — becoming aware of the closeness of our senior year — time of greatest success, failures, and joy before us — summers respite from studies provide time for metamorphosis from junior to senior.

student life

BHS brings us together—our world—not all classrooms—not all social life—a mosaic of fads, studies, traditions—crazy leg wear—a favorite gathering place for the crowd—dating—participating in sports either as players or fans—the untouchable Bulldog Flag on our flagpole—these too are a part of our life—never ending traditions—each year adds its part to our school's heritage.

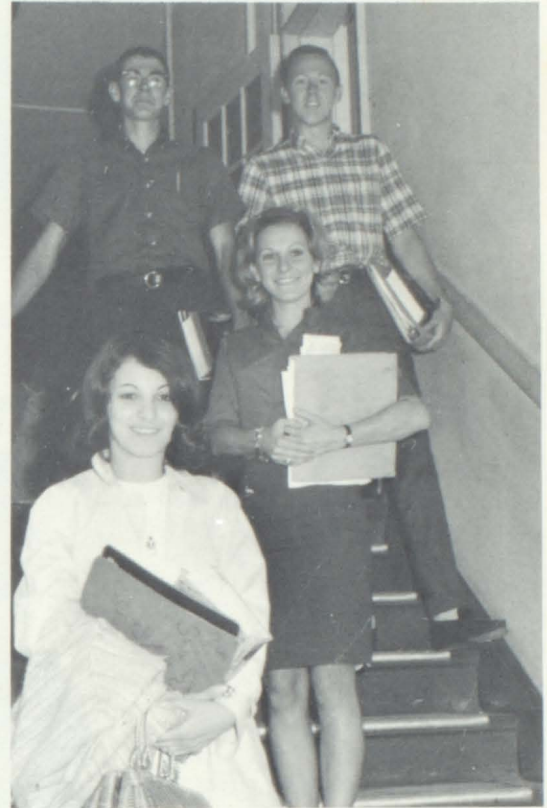

Phone booths are made for two or three or four or more.

Oh, would I like to duck her!

Seniors will be first for lunch, or die trying!

Seniors are renowned for always paying close attention in class.

On February 22, 1966 Bunnell High School's respect for its country was shown in the form of an oratorical contest on the Constitution of the United States.

Susan McMillan's speech on the checks and balances in the Constitution won first prize; a $25 United States Savings Bond, a silver Oratorical Medallion and a certificate of participation.

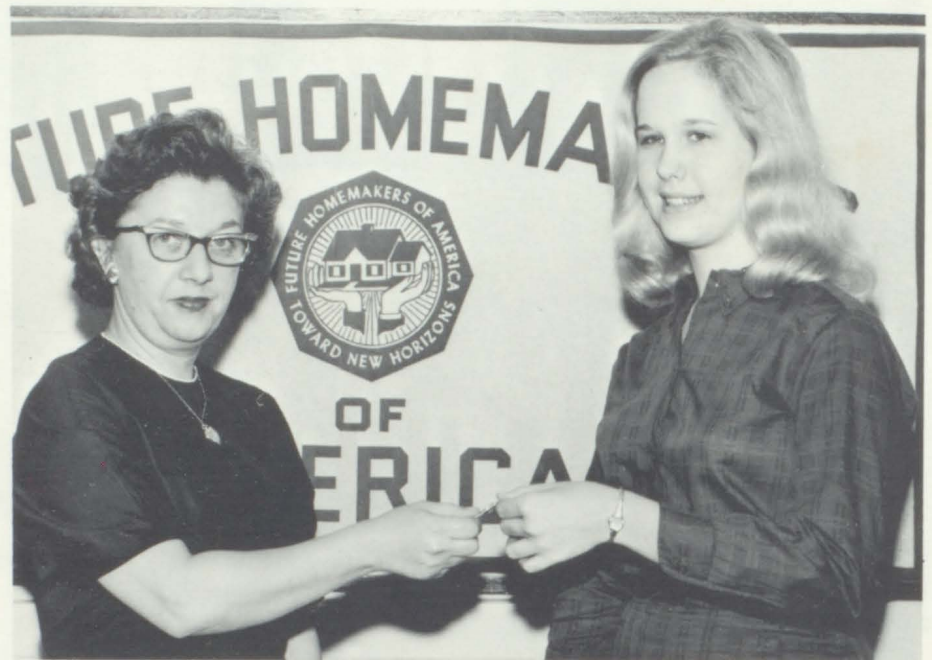

Dale Abbott's speech on defending the Constitution received second prize, a $10 cash award, a second place Oratorical Medallion and a certificate of participation.

Anne Bourne, who was unable to speak because of illness, was presented a certificate of participation.

Susan, accompanied by District 5 Adjutant Mrs. Cora Buckles, went on to District 5 contest held at Mainland High School in Daytona Beach on February 24 as Flagler County's representative.

Susan McMillan is shown here receiving the 1966 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award from Home Economics teacher Mrs. Rosemary Brown.

Susan's score of a Superior placed her in the top ten per cent of the nation and she is only the second girl from Bunnell to receive such a high score.

"Let us lead by serving others," is the motto of the National Beta Club.

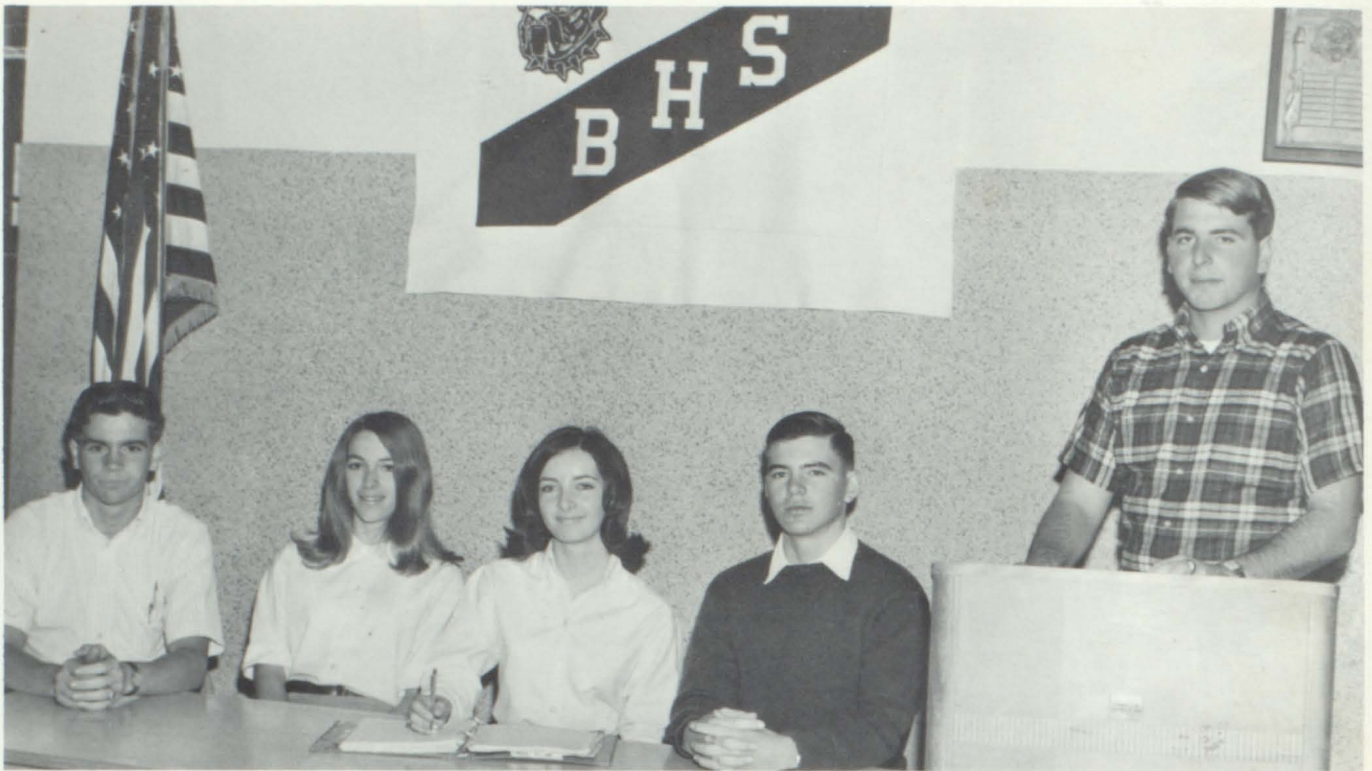

The subordinate clubs, such as the one in Bunnell High School, carries out this motto by promoting the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership, and rewards meritorious achievement, and encourages and assists students to continue their education after high school.

The club strives for public welfare, for improving scholarship, and for higher standards of personal conduct.

Each Beta member pledges to strive to promote the principles of honesty, justice, service, cooperation, responsibility, industriousness, humility, and charity. He also hopes that after he graduates he will be better able to contribute to the happiness of himself and others.

student association

Dan Cody, Sergeant of Arms; Marilyn McNab, Treasurer; Jo Anne Wilson, Secretary; Arthur McDaniel, Vice-President; Ed Schatz, Preident.

The purpose of the Bunnell High School Association is to promote student activities; to develop harmonious attitudes of good citizenship; to promote the welfare of the school; to provide a forum for the expression of student opinion; to develop student initiative and responsibilities; to provide for a laboratory of citizenship and to provide an opportunity for the training of student leaders.

The Student Association is not "just another club"; it is the most important club in the entire school. The Student Association provides an opportunity for teaching habits of responsible citizenship. The student actually does those things while in school that he will be calleeed upon to do when he leaves school and which he should do as a responsible citizen.

The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agriculture leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The specific purposes for which this organization was formed are as follows: (1) To develop competent, aggressive, rural, agricultural leadership. (2) To strengthen the confidence of farm boys and young men in themselves and their work. (3) To develop character, train for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism. (4) To participate in cooperative effort. (5) To provide and encourage the development of organized rural recreational activities.

The FFA boys are shown here planting their annual crop of potatoes. This crop like all crops in the past will be sold at market prices and the money will go into the treasury. The treasury of this club pays for the seedlings for the next crop and some maintenance at the farm. The money also sponsors a trip to some of the nearby fairs and various other activities.

The Spanish Club was organized at Bunnell High School to create an interest in the Spanish language. It has done that and much more. It is now commonplace to hear "Como esta usted?" instead of "How are you?" The club also holds project to help others with the money they earn. This club not only helps the students enjoy Spanish, but also broadens their outlook on life.

On December 22, 1965, the Spanish Club had its main service project of the year. Susan McMillan, Anne Bourne, Arthur McDaniel, and Belita Collins, all members of the Spanish Club, delivered a Santa Clause Pinata to the Methodist Children's Home in Enterprise.

All the children, ages 8-11, were blindfolded one at a time and given a chance to hit the candy filled Pinata as it hung from the ceiling. When a little boy finally broke it candy was scattered all over the floor and all the children quickly gathered it up.

After two hours of fun, the Spanish Club members returned to Bunnell quite happy they had gone.

Coaches watch closely, hoping that Walton can free himself from the tackler.

So near the goal, yet so far away

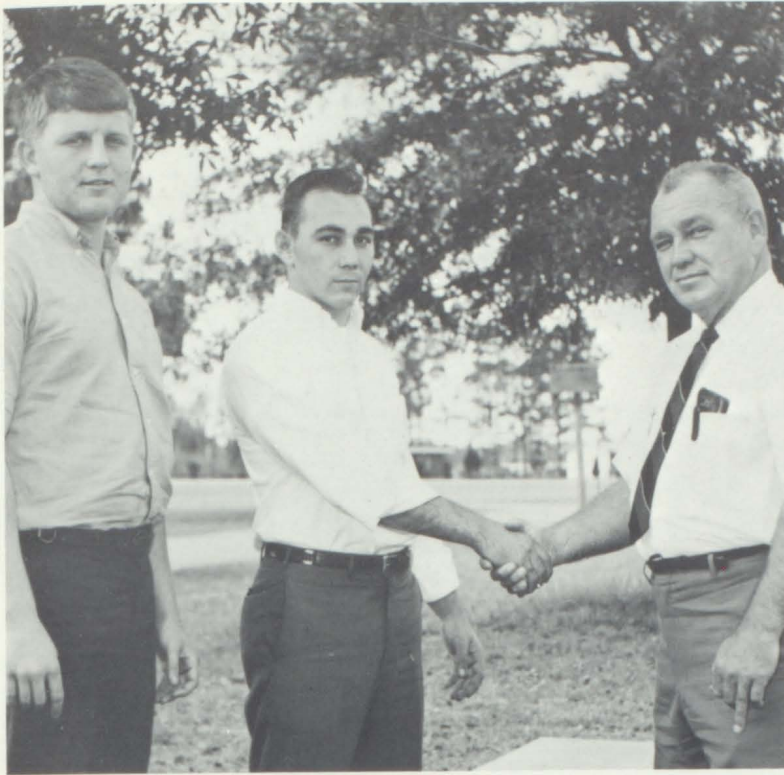

That's the way the ball bounces, Harry.

Walton picks up good yardage toward our next touchdown.

Now that he's down, the reff tries to keep others from piling on.

Harry steps across the goal line for six more points to assure our homecoming victory.

Slowly it comes—quickly it goes. Last minute preparation is the most appropriate phrase describing the week before Homecoming. After a few frantic last minute touches, the floats were readied for the parade. As inspiration to all B.H. S. students, a massive street pep rally took place. When the eight o'clock kick off time arrived, hundreds of high-spirited students in their latest apparel awaited the starting whistle. Victorious, the students and alumni raced to the civic center for the post-game dance. With passing moments of light-headed frivolity, Homecoming ended.

Martin and Fred cross their fingers as the official flips the coin to begin the game.

'65 homecoming

Homecoming was a great success. The stadium was packed and "The Bulldogs" roared their way to victory. Everyone was very happy when Marilyn McNab and Martin Tucker were crowned Homecoming King and Queen of 1965. With soaring spirits everyone danced to the music of the "Head Hunters" at the Homecoming Dance. Even though the floor was crowded everyone had a wonderful time. The seniors' last homecoming was one to be remembered for many years to come.

Football captain Martin Tucker cuts the Homecoming cake.

Smile pretty girls cause tonight one of you will take Heidi's place.

Bulldog fans frolic after a victorious Homecoming.

Band plays funeral dirge while the "Indian's" dummy burns—students cheer loudly.

Fred, along with other players, gives a few encouraging words to boost our spirits.

Cheerleaders lead snake dance down the streets of Bunnell.

Leading the homecoming parade was the Biggest Little Band in Dixie with its stunning new uniforms and magnificent showmanship . . . The Senior Class float was a bed of pink and lavender tissue with a large white victory bell bearing the title "Toll the Bell of Victory" . . . Even Keystone's funeral expenses were taken care of as the FFA boys produced a casket with all the trimmings . . . The Freshman float, a green and white base with girls holding a large four-leaf clover, carried the thought everyone was thinking — "GOOD LUCK" . . . A motor driven covered wagon, created by the Sophomores, made everyone go back thoughtfully in history with the Theme—"Beat Indians or Bust" . . . The Varsity Cheerleaders, riding on a convertible, had a large green megaphone to help cheer spirit into the fans of the Mighty BULLDOGS . . . The cheering started again when the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders yelled the favorite school chants . . . A South of the Border accent was given at the parade with the gayly decorated Spanish Club car saying "Van Pero de Toro" which means "Go Bulldogs" . . . The secret agents in the FTA decided the Bulldogs were gonna — "Make 'em say U.N.C.L.E." . . . The "intelligentsia" of our school, the Beta Club, was represented by a car bearing the theme—"Brain 'em Bulldogs" . . . Next in view was a group of youngsters licking suckers on the Tri-Hi-Y car which carried the theme—"Lick 'em Bulldogs" . . . The Library Club decided to make our Bulldogs "A Go Go" with music blaring from the car, which was decorated with records placed on the side—one of them saying "Hang on Bulldogs." They also had Go Go girls sitting all around the car emitting their great spirit.

Edee and David hold the symbols of victory while the King and Queen are yet unknown.

Happiness is being Homecoming King and Queen.

Now that the happiness tears are over they can smile for the camera.

The joy of Marilyn's victory is expressed by the court as you can tell by the looks on their faces.

ninth annual Miss Bunnell High Contest

miss Bunnell high

MARGIE BLAKELY

Then the winners were named. Betty Lynn Bourne was 3rd runner-up, Elizabeth Allen was 2nd runner-up, Sherry Hargett was 1st runner-up and Margie Blakely was crowned Miss Bunnell High of 1966. Sweetheart Martin Tucker kissed the winners.

With many tears of happiness another successful Miss B.H.S. contest came to an end.

Saturday, February 9, 1966, twenty-four lovely but very scared young ladies awaited the beginning of one of the biggest and most exciting nights of their lives. This was the day of the 9th Annual Miss Bunnell High contest.

This was a very busy day for these girls; it started at 9:00 a.m. with practice and then they rushed off to the hairdresser or to make those final arrangements for the evening.

At 6:30 they all settled down with their guests and the guests of the sponsoring club, the Tri-Hi-Y, to a most delicious banquet, too bad none of the girls were too hungry.

Mrs. Myrtle Rice gave a most inspiring talk which touched the hearts and minds of all there.

After the banquet the chosen twenty-four walked over to the gym to be presented to a most delightful and large audience. All of the girls seemed to receive confidence in themselves as Mr. Walter Morris, emcee, called them out to make the interminable walk to the center of gym and then to their seats.

After all the girls were presented Miss Bunnell High of 1965 Miss Ida Allen and 1965 Tri-Hi-Y Sweetheart Albert Johnston were presented and seated in the silver throne.

The decorating scheme of cupids and hearts seemed to set a very sentimental mood.

While the judges were out choosing the top ten Sandy Abbott, the Susie Q's, Susan Peterson and Mrs. Odell Clegg entertained everyone.

The judges' decisions were then announced by Mr. Morris and as he called out the names of the girls they went to the microphone and answered an opinionated question. The ten girls were Margie Blakely, Anne Bourne, Betty Lynn Bourne, Rabeth Hersey, Ann Hugas, Elizabeth Allen, Sherry Hargett, Susan McMillan, Kay Weaver, Brenda Murray.

While the judges were out choosing the queen and her court, Minnie, Mrs. Thelma Crotty, and Mrs. Clegg entertained.

Have you ever seen four happier girls in your life? They are Miss Bunnell High 1966 Margie Blakely; 1st Runner-up, Sherry Hargett; 2nd Runner-up, Elizabeth Allen; 3rd Runner-up, Betty Lynn Bourne.

How would you like to make the decision they have to make? The judges are Judson Stryker, Becky Clegg, Don Jordon, Bette McDaniel, and Ray Mercer.

Tri-Hi-Y President Susan McMillan welcomes everyone to the Banquet.

Tri-Hi-Y sponsor Mrs. Emma Murray introduces the dignitaries at the banquet.

Mrs. Odell Clegg accompanied by Mrs. Wilda Hargett could sing the meanness out of the wildest animal.

So young, yet so good!

Mrs. Myrtle Rice holds the group spell bound with a talk on truth and character.

roman holiday theme of 1965 prom

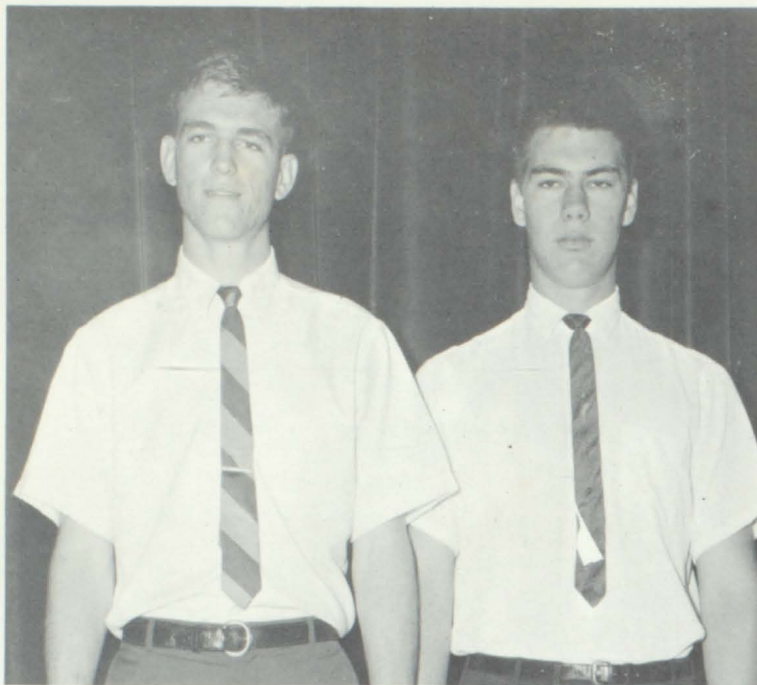

Lovely Roman girls, Roman servants, and a beautiful flowing fountain gave everyone the impression of being on a Roman Holiday. After weeks of diligent planning and hard work, spectacular results were seen. The gym was decorated in purple and white with gold lyres ornamenting the walls. A beautiful cake decorated as a chariot scene and golden lyres and candles adorned the refreshment table. Everyone enjoyed walking among the ivy-covered columns and around the garden scene. The music was provided by the Swinging Temptations.

Serving the refreshments to the Prom guests were: Nancy Hargett, Diana Lucas, Maria Hugas, Janet Cook, Jimmy McNab, John McDaniel, Gordon Worley.

Boys' Staters—Martin Tucker and Benton Eisenbach.

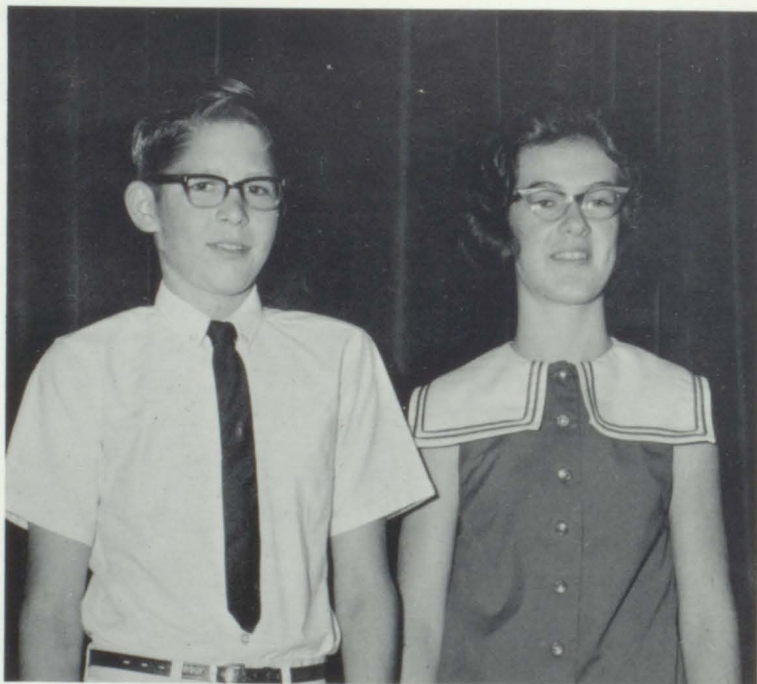

Boys' state

In the summer of 1965, Martin Tucker and Benton Eisenbach became part of hundreds of boys at the American Legion Boys' State. All those attending Boys' State had a very real insight of government at the city, county, and state level. This experience, sponsored for the boys by Post 115, will help them become more capable in the functions of their government.

CITIZENSHIP AWARD PRESENTED By AMERICAN LEGION

Citizenship Award recipients—Charles Clegg and Colleen Tucker.

One of the highest honors attainable in Junior High School was conferred on Colleen Tucker and Charles Clegg last year—the recipients of the Citizenship Award given by the American Legion. This award is given annually to a boy and girl who best displays a life of leadership, courage, scholarship, service, and honor. The student body congratulates these two young citizens for leading such outstanding lives.

The fifth graders are happy now in this picture after they convinced "grumpy grandfather" that Christmas is a time for fun . . . Summer recreation students enjoy giving a peep hole show . . . Candlemaking was the arts and crafts project as summer recreation.

The program was under the direction of Laura Morris . . . To make summer time safer and more enjoyable to these youngsters Coach Bo Manuel taught them to swim.

IN MEMORIAM

*Cover them over with beautiful flowers,
Deck them with garlands, those brothers of ours,
Lying so silent by night and day
Sleeping the years of their manhood away.
Give them the meed they have won in the past;
Give them the honors their future forecast;
Give them the chaplets they won in the strife;
Give them the laurels they lost with their life.*

day's log

12:01 a.m. The Seniors have yet to crack a book, but we'll manage.
 12:03 Margie is still brushing her hair.
 12:09 Kay, don't shine your diamond to nothing!
 12:11 Faye applies the bottle to the roots again.
 12:13 Judy starts her midnight prowling.
 12:15 Bill rides by Sue Duncan's again to check on his ring.
 12:30 Lewis comes in from the Navy Reserve meeting, but Lewis wasn't that last night?
 1:00 John, isn't that the fifth time you've read that part of the book?
 1:13 Judy's "Green Bomb" still won't start.
 1:15 Neal is still trying to convince Harry that it took him four hours to close the station.
 1:27 Sharyn has kicked Stuart out of the house for the sixth time.
 1:30 Marilyn McFarland ends another novel headed for West Palm Beach.
 1:47 Sherry dreams up another reason to argue with Walter—making up is so sweet!
 1:51 Pat and Katherine FINALLY finish their four-hour telephone conversation.
 2:05 Jeana and Scotty call the wrecker again! Stuck again!
 2:14 Belita and Sue Ellen come screaming in from Daytona.
 2:19 Rabeth and Flynn are making final "after graduation" plans.
 2:29 Margie and Tommy are still playing catch with his class ring.
 2:31 Betty Lynn is still trying to figure out a way to Gainesville.
 2:43 Judy gives up and goes to bed.
 2:59 Martin turns over to start another dream of Linda.
 3:09 Jimmy B. get up to work on his car before leaving for Mary Karl.
 3:19 Brenda T. gets up to go awaken her prize horses.
 3:53 The Seniors mercifully let Flagler County rest for next 27 minutes.
 4:26 Ed S. gets up to deliver papers and picks up Marilyn to go with him.
 5:00 Robby and his tuba get up to play alarm clock for the neighbors.
 5:10 Karen gets up to fight, I mean, fix her hair.
 5:13 A certain Senior girl gets up to practice her walk.
 5:21 Mack gets up to pet his burgandy horse before breakfast.
 5:29 Karen, Sharyn, Jimmy, Larry, Fred, Mike, John, Joe, Cotton, Mack, Jerry, David, and Linda get ready to catch the sleek Greyhound to Daytona.
 6:00 Kay is still dreaming of Turkey — but no sandwiches.
 6:45 Almost all the Seniors have decided that they'll let B.H.S. survive one day without them!
 7:10 Carol gets up to do her morning exercise.
 7:20 The teachers are eating their breakfast of razors and mean pills.
 7:30 Well whata va know? Liz finally woke up!
 7:45 Marilvn McNab is running furiously back home — could it be she forgot something? Her shoes, maybe?
 7:50 Mike Tidwell picks up his average carload of 10 and races to school.
 8:00 Susan, Martin, Brenda, and Myrlene are catching up on lost sleep on the quietest (ha) bus around.
 8:19 The town Seniors come squealing into the parking lot.
 8:20 The bell rings and the Seniors race to see who can be the latest to homeroom.
 8:30 Homeroom is over. Now it's time for the Seniors to learn the teachers a thing or two.
 8:48 Stanford gripes about the cramped study hall condition.
 9:15 Sherry is trying to show Mrs. Bayless how to do trig.
 9:36 Donna regrets not eating breakfast.
 9:59 Elizabeth finishes reading Tommy's lengthy note. What's the smile for, Liz!
 10:14 Second period English class has thoroughly confused Miss Barnhart.
 10:30 Alas, break!
 10:57 What's that awful smell from the Chemistry room? Brenda and Susan are at it again.
 11:13 Mr. Hein is trying his best to teach his bookkeeping class the difference between debits and credits.
 11:30 The Bulldog Derby now starts to the cafeteria. Of course, the Seniors have a slight advantage.
 11:37 Faye D. starts asking for handouts.
 11:52 Four Senior girls start their own study hall. This one allows students to help each other.
 11:47 Fred is installing a special seat in his VW so Judy won't have to sit on the floor anymore!!
 Noon There goes Stuart toward the now arriving Mary Karl bus.
 12:15 Well, back to trying to out fox the teachers.
 12:31 George shows everyone how smart he is in physics.
 12:48 Rabeth and Judy are showing Mrs. Bayless how to do Algebra I.
 1:15 Margie makes a last chance to copy, I mean do her geometry.
 1:29 Government students are wishing we were still under England's rule!
 2:00 Butch and Zachary are trying to make new physics laws. They just won't work.
 2:23 Some Seniors are teaching English as usual.
 2:48 Mr. Carson is again realizing that the band just couldn't go on without the Almighty Seniors. Face it — we, the Seniors, can do anything.
 3:10 50 Seniors are making plans for the afternoon. Oh! that bell is so slow.
 3:15 Drivers, man your cars — the Bunnell Race Track is now open.
 4:00 A FEW industrious Seniors are at work.
 4:07 Fred avoids the corner of Howe and Church, as usual.
 4:15 Kay starts to cry because Turkey is on the menu.
 4:30 Brenda M. starts her novel — of a letter — to be sent to St. Augustine.
 5:00 Marilyn McNab looks at the great surf, then remembers her nose.
 5:43 Richard B. is again telling Mr. Tucker how to better run his ranch.
 6:00 Almost all of the Seniors are feeding their faces.
 6:31 Jeana is getting impatient 'cause Scotty is a whole minute late.
 7:00 All good Seniors are hard at work on homework, of course to the light of T.V.
 8:15 Margie starts her four hour hair brushing routine.
 9:00 A copper fairlane finally leaves Myrlene's house.
 9:33 Sharyn at last gets Stuart out of her house.
 10:03 Faint, Betty Lynn is rolling her hair. Could it be because Danny's coming home tomorrow?
 10:17 Harry and Faith decided to say goodnight.
 10:45 Benton is still telling Hervey bedtime stories.
 11:02 Susan finally finishes her letter to Georgia.
 11:33 Belita is still making plans to go to California.
 11:39 Margaret H. puts away the book — see teachers she does study!
 11:59 Hey, look at the crowd at the submarine races!
 Midnight—All the Seniors hit the sack to dream up more torture for the poor teachers. Good night.

senior class will

We, the Senior Class of 1966, being of sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

I, Sherry Hargett, do hereby leave my old basketball uniform to my sister, Nancy; my ability as a basketball player, due to my tremendous height, to Jim McNab; all my mathematical "genius" to Vicki King; and all of the headaches in making up the majorette routines to Johnnie and Ann.

I, Bill Kurtz, leave my ability to work math problems without the headache of knowing how to Arthur McDaniel.

I, Judy Dunson, do hereby leave my quiet temper while playing basketball to Jack Knight, my "Club Foot" shoes to Brenda Townsend, my ability to work hard in the library to Mrs. Broadway, and my ability to get along with Mr. Hein to Ray Newell.

I, Tommy Herr, do hereby leave my ability to play the trumpet to Darrell Britt and my ability to keep a car running for two whole weeks to Bill Harris.

I, John Waterman, do hereby leave my ability to read ten books in one week to Philip Zimmerle.

I, Benton Eisenbach, hereby leave my good grades in band to Mike Missinee, my ability to play the trombone to Dennis Clay, and my ability to jump in basketball to Tony Parker.

I, Brenda Murray, do hereby leave my ability to play the clarinet to Paquita for whatever good it might do her, my three consecutive classes in Room 12 to Ray Newell and Glenn Miller, and my bookkeeping notes to the highest bidder.

I, Stan Robertson, do hereby leave my ability to chew tobacco while practicing football to John Cody and my ability to be the first one back to the gym after Thursday night practice to John Johnston.

I, Mike Tidwell, do hereby leave my straight hair to Dennis Clay, my vibrating car to someone who needs to lose weight, my trig grades to "Jr.", my normal feet to V.H., and my amazing speed in typing to anyone else with club fingers.

I, Robby Durrance, leave my ability to "get on it" in the parking lot to John Johnston, my excess weight to David Richardson, and my size 14 shoes to Jack Sparkman.

I, Harry Bullock, leave my ability to play football to Glenn Miller, my height to Jimmy McNab, my pole vaulting ability to Dennis Buono, and my ability to get out of study hall to Mark Strickland.

I, Ed Schatz, do hereby leave my ability to do math to Becky Robertson and Alan Jones.

I, Butch McDaniel, do hereby leave my ability to play a French horn to Bruce Arnold, and my ability to pass advanced math to Alan Jones.

I, Sharyn Abraham, leave my ability to get along with Miss Bradley and the cheerleaders to Lulu and Linda, my ability to get along with the teachers to Sandy Abbott, to stay calm to Maria Hugas, and last of all I leave with Stuart Rockett.

I, Margaret Hoskins, do hereby leave Mr. Hein to Christy Green and my shorthand to anyone who is ambitious enough to take it.

I, David Spivey, leave all my old books to anybody who can sit in class and do nothing and still pass.

I, Jeana Lovelace, do hereby leave my natural brown hair to Peggy Missinee and my ability to go with one boy to Vicki King.

I, Belita Collins, do hereby leave my ability to be quiet sometimes to Maria Hugas, my car to my brother Jack, the Daytona boys to Viki Hein, my long hair to David Richardson, and my 69 in citizenship to Jimmy McNab.

I, Marilyn McNab, leave my ability to always have fun to Jack, Walton, and Glenn; my love of life to Vicki and Carol; and my happy-go-lucky ways to Linda Knight.

I, Jimmy Bratcher, do hereby leave my ability to skip school to Alan Jones.

I, Fred Harris, do hereby leave my ability to play center to Jack Knight; my ability to skip football practice and get away with it to my brother Bill; and my ability to go with a redhead who's taller than me to Dennis Buono.

I, Karen Abraham, leave my ability to get along with Mr. Hein to Dale Abbott, my old unused text books to Sandy Abbott, my full tank of gas in the Malibu to Glenn Miller, and BHS to Mike Bacon.

I, Elizabeth Allen, do hereby leave my ability to be a cheerleader four years to Janet Cook and my size 4½ shoe to Sue Broadway.

I, Lewis Smigielski, do hereby leave to Phillip Zimmerle my ability to fake news reports and to John Jarosz my electric typewriter.

I, Kay Weaver, do hereby leave my ability as a guard to Carla Tucker and Mary Anne Steflik and my calm ways and attitudes in a game to Maria Hugas.

I, Marilyn McFarland, do hereby leave my blond hair to Carol Waugh, the wide halls of BHS to Sandy Abbott, my completed workbooks to my little sisters, and BHS to the "Highest Bidder."

I, Pat Barrow, do hereby leave my class ring to Catherine S. and my great typing ability to Jack Sparkman.

I, Larry Cox, leave my ability to pass without studying to my sister. The rest of you can have dear Ole Bunnell High.

I, Martin Tucker, do hereby leave my ability not to lose my temper to John Cody, my petite muscles to Charles Clegg, my height to Jimmy McNab, and my ability to think to Linda Skolar.

I, Rabeth Hersey, do hereby leave my perfect driving record to John Johnston, my frosted hair to Sandy Scott, my surfboard to Jimmy McNab, and my ability to do algebra to Glenn Miller.

I, Cotton May, leave my speed in track to Bill Harris, my ability to "goof off" to Jimmy McNab, and my old books to anybody who wants them.

I, Susan McMillan, leave my ability to stay out of trouble to John Johnston, my lighthearted outlook on life to Paquita, and what we discussed to Maria.

I, Linda Way, do hereby leave my attitude of "better said than done" to Lora Durrance; my favorite teacher, Mr. Hein, to my sister, Mary; and my brother, Harvey, to Diana Knox.

I, Margie Blakely, do hereby leave my flirtatious ways to Becky Robertson, my long blond hair to Paquita, my mathematical brain to Walton and Mrs. Bayless, and my basketball trophy to Miss Bradley.

I, Stuart Rockett, do hereby leave my good looks and masculinity to Glenn Miller; my car to Jimmy McNab, who always needs a ride; and Sharyn I take with me.

I, Brenda Tucker, do hereby leave my basketball ability to play rover to anyone who has the courage to do it; my ability as a player to my sister, Colleen; my horseback riding ability to Carol Linda; and dear ole BHS to my two younger sisters, Denise and Eve.

I, Mike Manndiville, do hereby leave my old books to whomever wants them, and my watchmaking skill to Jimmy Harbert.

I, George Jarosz, do hereby leave my ability to stay out of trouble to Jimmy Akins and my brother John.

I, Carol Pache, leave my sax to Tina, my secret admirer to Carol Fryman, and a box of tacks to Christy Green.

I, Myrlene Henry, do hereby leave my naughty ways to my brothers, Marvin, Mitchel, and Morgan; my love for horses and all of Haw Creek to Carla Tucker so she can have lots of range to ride; and I leave lots of love, luck, and laughter to all the Seniors to come.

I, Donna Akins, do hereby leave my witty expressions to my brother, Jimmy; my unused shorthand book to Catherine, and my ability to stay calm to Christy.

I, Betty Lnn Bourne, do hereby leave to Kathy and Lee my ability to pass math, to Annabelle my long fingernails, and to Jr. my natural blonde hair.

After high school
...what direction?

A solid educational background becomes increasingly important in getting and holding a good job and enjoying a better way of life.

A college diploma is an investment that will continue to pay dividends. College grads can expect to out-earn high school graduates by 70%.

Florida's universities, colleges and junior colleges are in a period of unprecedented growth, both academically and physically. The college of your choice can prove to be your best friend.

Whatever you decide to do...good luck, best wishes, and more power to you.
