$F_{\text {oreward }}$

We, the annual staff of the 1968 Pinea, hope to bring back fond memories of pep rallies, football, basketball, and baseball games, homecoming, clubs, class activities, and graduation - the important events which happened during the 1967-1968 school year.

Now, as the door to this school year closes, we seniors think back to the years we put in school, and think of the years the future classes have to put in.

As we depart from the halls of Bunnell High, we leave our past experiences to those still in school.

Dedication

The 1968 Pinea Staff is more than proud to dedicate this annual to Miss Sarita Bradley and Mr. T. C. (Top-Cat) Hein. We feel the dedication of our yearbook to them is small in comparison with dedication they have shown us. It was these two people who gave encouragement, and praise when earned. An otherwise dull day was brightened and humored with their cheerfulness.
The help and unending patience they have contributed has made our Senior year a joyful success that will remain in our memory.

Administration

Our school days would have been incomplete without the outstanding assistance of the administration of Bunnell High.

We realize the importance of those, who with their constant effort and care, helped us through those hectic years in school.

We, the graduating class of 1968 , wish to express our appreciation for their help through the years; and we feel sure that they will continue their efforts through the coming years.

Custodian and Cafeteria

To these men and women we give our heartfelt thanks for making our school year more enjoyable.

Long before each school day begins, the bus drivers are driving along the roads of Flagler County picking up students.

At 7:30 the Cafeteria workers are busy fixing the "great" lunches we eat each day.
"Martin" is an ever present crutch to lean on whenever anything is needed or needs fixing.

As we the seniors leave the corridors of BUNNELL HIGH SCHOOL, we leave many things-friends, classmates, football heros, and faculty.

Senior Class History

On a beautiful September day in 1956, eleven first graders entered Bunnell Elementary School. The original members of the Class of 1968 in Bunnell were Lee Bourne, Karen Moody, Kate Strickland, Darrell Britt, Sharon Salyerds, Carol Smigielski, Sue Broadaway, Hewitt Dupont, Linda Knight, Tony Parker, and Jim Akins. In Flagler Beach Elementary School, there were four original members of the Class of 1968 - Jo Anne Wilson, Vicki Moore, Eleanor Shill, and Lu Lu McNab.

The next four years added several new students to our roll - Tina Pache in third grade; Jimmy Harper in fourth; Bobby Robinson in fifth; and Sharon Patrick and Henry Bowers in sixth.

When we entered the seventh grade there were many new experiences - and new students from Flagler Beach: Wesley Thomas, LuLu McNab, Jo Arne Wilson, Eleanor Shill, and Vicki Moore. Our float, "Lick 'Em Bulldogs," won a prize for the most original float in the Homecoming Parade.

In the eighth grade, Jo Anne Wilson and Tony Parker received the American Legion's annual "Good Citizenship School Award." Andy Waterman became a new member of the class.

By the time we were freshmen we realized we didn't have to be the first to get to the classrooms, and stopped running through the halls. Algebra was a big worry to many of us but we somehow managed to pass. The ninth grade welcomed Trudy Hall to the class. This was our first year of glory - the girls beat the seniors in intramural basketball.

The sophomore year meant work - for Biology was an exciting and new experience. Ray Krutz joined us that year. We also gained another win in inframural.

12:00 All good Seniors are tucked snugly in their beds with the exception of 30 .
12:03 Well, Wesley, about time to knock off work so you can get a couple of hours sleep before school tomorrow.
12:05 Darrell is still sitting up conjuring up a legitimate argument for Mr. Barnes.
12:09 Rest easy, Sue, you may as well give up on getting those points from Mrs. Gurnee.
12:13 Linda, isn't it about time to quit for now? You've been writing that letter since 6:00 this morning!
12:15 Most people count sheep, Sharon S. seems to be counting horses.
12:20 About time you got back from that walk on the beach LuLu, but it's a long way from Daytona, isn't it?
12:27 Alice is arriving home from Grace's where her routine of "Four Corner" did not aid her in her ambition to strengthen her skinny legs and all!
12:39 Tony it's time to quit studying for tomorrow, it's only an Economics test!
12:45 Lee sits with his mind wandering . . . "Would it be advisable to take Kathy G. out this month?"
12:59 Sharon, don't worry, you'll find your kitten.
1:01 Hewitt put up your book; the kerosene is about to run out.
1:18 Wake up Theodore, Coach Kirkland isn't going to make you run that challenge course tomorrow.
1:23 Andy, birds don't fly at night, don't you think you ought to come in for tonight.
1:31 Karen, you better watch it, that pet grass snake your Dad brought home just crawled under your pillow.
1:42 Bobby (Cupid) dreams of his devilish ideas of whom he will couple tomorrow.
1:47 It's about time for Sir to enter Tina's bedroom . (Only The Cat.)
2:00 Trudy goes to get her papers! Trudy, the papers didn't get delivered until 5:00; who were you talking to?
2:06 Bedtime nears for James Williams.
2:19 Henry rolls over, and dreams up another animal call. (or is he dreaming)
2:23 Martha, does your chewing gum lose it's flavor on the bedpost overnite?
2:31 Vicki, will you ever get over Valley of the Dolls? It could cause nightmares!
2:44 Ernie, it's okay, don't worry about the game tomorrow, you know that Coach knows what he's doing?????
3:10 Tony, your late for your date with Beethoven.
3:17 Jeanette taps on Alice's window for her lesson of Four Corner - those Skinny legs look closer everyday.
3:29 Linda puts on the record before crawling into bed ... "Bobby's in the dorm asleep," "Bobby's in the dorm asleep," Bobby's in the .
3:34 Carol sneaks out to meet Tiny, as shy as she is!
3:48 Darrell is in deep contemplation trying to think of something that will top "The Miller's Tale!"
5:00 Jim Akins gets up to work on his car. He just couldn't walk those four blocks to school.
5:36 Eleanor, you know you should have done your Math homework, Mr. Barnes will give you a sermon about not having it.
5:51 Ray finally gets back from Daytona. That Fiat's kinda slow . . . or is it?
6:22 Jo Anne the mail isn't put up until 9:00. It's not there yet.
6:39 Mr. Barnes prepares the final draft of his sermon for the day, and prepares a score sheet for the Seniors Talking Game!
7:00 Jimmy Harper rolls over and makes up his mind its too cold to go to school. Jimmy its Aprill!!
7:03 15 Seniors awaken and 15 arrive home readying themselves for the old grind.
7:27 LuLu finally decides to get out of bed and ready herself for school.
7:32 Darrell emerges onto the highway - will a ride ever come for me?
7:38 If Jimmy's (H) laziness keeps up, the Fish Camp can make him half owner.
7:45 Ernie, shall we try school today?
8:00 LuLu might make the bus if she leaves her books, jacket, lunch money - no, she couldn't!
8:09 Teachers begin to amble around the parking lot.
8:13 The Hell's Angel's have arrived. How could we be so honored.
8:22 Trudy inquires as to which bell just rang-would you belive the third?
8:30 Well, Mr. Barnes, shall we begin teaching or have you finished planning your sermons?
8:47 Kate, just broke her record - she talked to Bobby - remember the Score Sheet!
9:10 Jo Anne continues typing cards, pockets, Title II cards, overdue books, will she ever finish?
9:32 Poor Tony; he'll be admitted to an insane asylum if Sharon and Mr. Hanyen continue tearing his philosophies apart.
9:59 Darrell, you cannot sing and type at the same time.
10:14 Sharon S. longs for her own library back.
10:32 Economics - Darrell can sleep; he lost that love life he used to dream about!
10:51 You can find Jo Anne and Kate in Mr. Hein's room at the moment, but when Mr. Hein leaves to go to lunch - there's no telling where they'll be.
10:52 The Seniors keep telling Mr. Craig. "It's 11:00 time to go for lunch.
11:26 The lunches must be getting worse, that front table has discontinued asking for handouts.
11:33 Everyone rushes to the elementary section of "Jim's" library to see who can find the funniest story.
11:49 Activity Period - a senior here, a senior there, a senior everywhere.
12:30 Everyone clear the tennis court, here comes the four tennis loves!
12:48 For some reason those experiments aren't working, the school is still standing. (The Physics Class is slipping)
1:25 The two rows by the door form their familiar circle - shall we tell jokes or play hangman.
2:06 Mrs. Barasa sure is going to miss the '68 SENIORS next year!
2:15 The Seniors just can't wait to get to English its not that they love Mr. Beasley or anything, its 7 th period.
2:32 Watch it Glen, here comes the book; Ray, catch the glasses, LuLu can't you tiptoe, he's crying again! Another day of rest.
3:01 The Seniors begin the count down 840 seconds, 839,838,837.
3:15 The bell rings marking the beginning of the race - a new record folks 5 skid marks left on one corner - one car?!!!
4:00 Basketball practice begins - I thought Ray and Ernie played?
4:44 Trudy begins her paper route.
5:15 Jimmy H. you can come out of your hiding school's been out for 2 hours.
6:30 Lunch could never dull our Seniors appetites for supper - Everyone proceeds to make a pig of himself.
7:13 Jim A. pretends to gas the cars at the station.
8:29 Bobby practices the 600 yard run - are you going out for track or trying to lose a gal.
9:07 We had better not mention any names - but the submarine races parking areas are really crowded tonight!!
10:18 Wonder whose V.W. is at Sharon S's house now??
11:00 Most of the girls had better be in bed because they need all the beauty rest they can get.
11:30 Ernie is still trying to decide which girl he'll like this week.
MIDNIGHT Another day in the life.

I, JAMES MATTHEW AKINS, do hereby leave my ability to play football to Coach Hall, and my ability to skip class and not be missed to Bill Harris.

I, THEODORE ALEXANDER, will my shortness to Charlie Methvin and my ability to get along with the girls to Joel Alexander.

I, ERNEST CLAUDE JOHNSON, leave my ability to play football to Norman Fitzgerald.

I, LINDA ELLEN KNIGHT, do hereby leave my ability to keep quiet once in a while to Glen, my ability to get along with Mr. Beasley to Lesa, and Miss Bradley I leave to Charlotte.

I, RAYMOND STANLEY KRUTZ, leave B.H.S. one Charles (Tuna) Methvin to Sock it to you. To Jim McNab's Hearse I leave my Fiat for a spare tire.

I, LINDA LOU McNAB, do hereby leave my long blond hair to Alice Smith. My size $4 \frac{1 / 2}{2}$ feet to Jeannie Higginbotham.

I, MARTHA KAREN MOODY, do hereby leave my shorthand notes to Janet and Kathy, my cheat notes in Economics to any future Senior who will need them, my height to Brenda T. My durable car to the Tinance Company, Chicken Man to next year's poor Seniors and B.H.S. to anyone who can get along with them.

I, VICKI SUSAN MOORE, do hereby leave my books, locker, and all my teachers to my brother and to anyone else who can get along with them.

I, TONY EDWIN PARKER, leave my dubious ability in athletics to John Taylor, my scientific mind to Gary Buckles, The Biggest Little Band in Dixie to its surviving members. And my trumpet mute to Chuck Herr who needs it.

I, SHARON ALYCE PATRICK, leave my love for storms to Lyna, for Lisa my spindly figure, and my reserved manner to Maria.

I, ROBERT CARROLL ROBINSON, do hereby leave my birth-mark on my right arm to Jim McNab. And my ability to turn red to Rabbit.

I, SHARON KATHY SALYERDS, do hereby leave my tallness to Chuck Cowart, my ability to go with the same boy for over a year to Minnie and B.H.S. to anyone who wants it.

I, JEANETTE DELORIS SCARBOUGH, will my extravagant knowledge to Lillie Máe Hall.

I, CAROL JEAN SMIGIELSKI, do hereby leave Mr. Hein to Terry Rawlins. And my great Typing ability to anyone who can speed it up.

I, ELEANOR TENER SHILL, do hereby leave Mr. Barnes to Brother Stan, my ad files to next year's advertising editor, the Herman's Hermits albums to Janet, and my curly hair to Terry Rawlins.

I, PAMELA ANNE SMITH, do hereby leave all my used chewing gum to Mr. Hanyen; my math ability to Kathy, my speedy car to my sister Vickie, my ability to get along with Mrs. Barasa to anyone that has her next year, and the following Seniors Privileges to the Seniors of next year: Good Luck!

I, MARY KATHRYN STRICKLAND, do hereby leave everything above the waist, and below the neck to Maria and Lesa to Glen one wrecked V.W. and "ours", to Mr. Lanier Beasley one Senior picture and one dart. And my ability to aggravate Mr. Hein and get away with it to Bill Harris.

I, WESLEY EVERETT THOMAS, do hereby leave my ability to get along with Mrs. Barasa to Jack Collins and my ability to pass without studying to Larry Buono.

I, ANDREW SCOTT WATERMAN, do hereby leave my Smoking Permit to Buddy Moore.

I, JO ANNE WILSON, do hereby leave "Tweetie Pie" to Kathy Bourne; my flippers to Lesa, my ability to fall in love with a certain someone and date him 2 years later to my sweet sister, Barsa Susie, to Mrs. Whitney the frequent visits to the office by the brave one who accepts Student Council President and thanks for all her encouragement! To Chuck Herr the hope of finally finding that certain someone, the boy I was so friendly with that made Beth M. jealous of me, I leave to her, "Well Cross my Legs" to the unlucky girl whe is teased by James R. next year, to Mr. Beasley, the nope that next year's classes won't be as tough as ' 68 so he'll not be forced to work so terribly hard - maybe they'll understand you! to the one of Mr. Herring's choice, my familiar seat in his office, to Miss Bradley a P.E. class fee of a lazy weakling. My unthinkable thoughts to Genece Minshew, my interest and enthusiasm to all the students at B.H.S. Love Ya!!

During the week of September 4, 1967, the Junior Class worked hard to make the annual Junior Class Magazine Drive once again a success. Although the Junior Class did not top last year's total, their efforts did not go unrewarded. The outstanding salesman of 1967-68 was Mary Anne Steflik with a total of $$ 103.06$. Working hard for the final total of $$ 874.83$ was Cindy Durrance, John Cody, Nancy Hargett, Janet Cook, Mike Robinson, Kathy Bourne, Carol Townsend, Terry Rawlins, Buddy Moore, John McDaniel, Robert Creal, and Maria Hugas.

Now that we are no longer silly underclassmen we look forward to the great and disappointing things to come in the next four years. We feel BIG now that we can tell the underclassmen where to go in and around our campus. The year has brought us many joys as well as many heartaches. We look forward to the next year when we will be anxious sophomores.

Underclassmen

With mixed emotions we experience our first sweethearts, our first time of belonging to BHS, and the never ending process of changing classes. We met many people and made many new friends which we will remember all the way through high school. Our classes can look forward to the excitement of HOMECOMING and sports activities. We can experience new organizations, field trips, state test, class rings, and the hope that we will prove ourselves to our upperclassmen.

Organizations

This year, a year of trial and error, has challenged students who are concerned and willing to give of their time and talents in order to gain responsibility and leadership.

The clubs and organizations promote scholarship, leadership, character, co-operation, and meeting new people.

Organizations help develop school spirit, by students getting together for projects, attempting to construct a better school and community.

In a trying year the student council has shown its importance. As a center where representatives of student body and faculty met, the distance of understanding was shortened.

The election of officers and participation of students in various activities gives the student a sense of responsibility and the experience necessary for a start in today's society. Not only knowledge and leadership are experienced, but also one learns cooperation and human relations, which every one realizes is greatly needed.

The Bulldogs playing hard on the field, frozen fans cheering in the stands, band members and the great halftime performances - all are a part of football at B.H.S. The team as a unit competes with other teams, and the school as a unit is cheering the Bulldogs on to victory.

The season holds memories for everyone. There is, for seniors, those of their last homecoming, football games, halftime participations - and for as many new students the first of these activities. Yes, it was a very good year.

g. V. Cheerleaders

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders at BHS contribute a great deal to aid our pep and enthusiasm during football and basketball seasons.

We couldn't help but have such a good team with such exuberant girls to cheer them to endless victories. All our cheerleaders' efforts seem to go unrewarded, but we think they are great!

Cheerleaders

The Varsity Cheerleaders of the '67-'68 school year are Janet Cook, Nancy Hargett, Maria Hugas, Ann Meekins, and Barbara Wilson. School spirit and enthusiasm were kept at a maximum due to these exuberant girls' efforts in supporting our school.

All the pep rallies we had this Football season just didn't happen. These girls worked long and hard on them. Remember that these girls have spent many hours on making school spirit, and we ought to show a little enthusiasm in their projects.

Homecoming was full of the excitement everyone had beenlookingfor. Mondaythrough Thursdaywas amad rush to finish the floats that every class hoped would winfirst prize. Thursday was filled with variedactivivities before the "really big day." The parade was an excellent start to Homecoming'67. "The Biggest Little Band in Dixie" started the ball rolling with the Cheerleaders following close behind.

The Student Council, sponsors of the Homecoming activities, held a luncheon in the school cafeteria for the Alumni. The 20 alumni that attended enjoyed a delicious luncheon followed by a tour of the school grounds and a view of the parade.

The Freshman class did it again as they rolled away with lst prize. They worked hard on their float "Lick 'Em." Close behind in 2nd place was the Sophomore float "Scalp 'Em." Last, but not least, was the Senior float which won 3rd place with its theme "Make Them Look Like Babies." The Junior float was enhanced by the homecoming court, last year's queen, Becky Robertson, and crownbearer, Brenda Robinson. The 8th grade float was "Massacre the Indians."

Five nervous girls and five excited boys waited for the big announcement during halftime. People in the stands were wondering "Now, who will it be?" They didn't have to wait long as the big announcement was told to everyone. Miss Maria Hugas and Mr. Jimmy Akins were presented as the Homecoming Queen and King of 1967. What a thrilling moment for both of them as Becky Robertson crowned a tearful, very happy Maria, while Walton Cowart crowned a very proud Jimmy.

Eleventh Annual Miss BHS Contest

Miss Bunnell High

Jim Akins, Tri-Hi-Y Sweetheart; Paquita Hugas, Miss Bunnell High of 1967; Miss Jo Anne Wilson, Miss Bunnell High of 1968; Sue Broadaway, First runner-up; Nancy Hargett, Second runner-up; Carol Townsend, Third runnerup.

The 1968 Miss Bunnell High Contest was the event of February 10, 1968. Eighteen lovely girls participated in the contest. Those given the hard assignment of judging the contestants were Mrs. W. O. Estes, Mrs. F. W. Tingley, Mr. Shelton Barber, Dr. Ben Lacy, and Mr. Keene Gurnee.

The contest featured the former winners, beginning with the first Miss Bunnell High in 1958, to the one chosen Miss Bunnell High of 1968 .

The eleventh annual Miss Bunnell High Contest began at 7:30 p.m. in the gymnasium. Mr. Walter Morris, the Master of Ceremonies, introduced each girl as she entered.

While the judges retired to select the top eight contestants, the audience enjoyed the organ music of Miss Linda Skolar, a ballet by Miss Helene Bryan, and a vocal trio composed of Miss Kathy Bourne, Miss Janet Cook, and Miss Linda Lingold. Miss Carol June Smith presented a tap routine, and Miss Faye Hutcheson one of baton twirling. The JuniorSenior Chorus and The Soul Singers performed several songs, accompanied on the piano by Miss Barbara Field, Miss Joann Pagano, and Elmer Hubbert.

The judges returned to name these girls as the top eight: Sue Broadaway, Jeanne Higginbotham, Nancy Hargett, Maria Hugas, Susan Peterson, Kathryn Strickland, Carol Townsend, and Jo Anne Wilson. These girls answered their questions well; the judges left to select the winners.

The contestants decided to select a Miss Congeniality. Miss Carol Townsend received the honor, and a lovely bouquet of flowers. Paquita Hugas crowned Miss Bunnell High of 1968, Miss Jo Anne Wilson. Su Broadaway was chosen First runner-up, Nancy Hargett, Second, and Carol Townsend, Third.

Little else needs saying as the pictures show the joy and success of the 1968 Miss Bunnell High Contest.

Miss Bunnell High-1967, Ann Hugas, Tri-Hi-Y Sweetheart, Jim Akins, and the train-bearers, Mimi Gurnee and Gina Seale entering the 1968 Miss Bunnell High Contest.

Picture taking for the judges was a break from the difficult task ahead. From left to right are: Dr. Ben Lacy, Mrs. W. O. Estes, Mr. Shelton Barber, Mrs. F. W. Tingley, and Mr. Keene Gurnee.

Sue was the first contestant to begin interviews following the banquet on the Thursday preceding the Saturday Contest.

The excitment couldn't dull the appetites these girls had for the delicious food served at the banquet.

Everyone seemed to be held spellbound as Ann gave her speech which ended her reign as Miss B.H.S. - 1967.

Hard at work, the judges near the grand finale.

Citizenship Award

Each year the local American Legion Post 115 sends two boys to Boy's State in Tallahassee.

During the summer after completion of their junior year Bobby Robinson and Hewitt Dupont spent an exciting week experiencing government activities and making new friends.

The eighth grade citizenship awards were presented to Pam McDaniel and Leo Fleurie for possession of the outstanding qualities of honor, courage, scholarship, leadership, and service during the 1966-1967 school year.

Keep your

 Lamp of Learning

In every field of endeavor, the quest for knowledge is a life-long process.

A solid educational background is increasingly important in our fast-paced world of science, exploration and invention. It is the key to greater earning capability and a more fruitful life.

Whether your steps will lead to the halls of higher learning, or to off-campus education opportunities that Florida offers in ample measure . . . resolve to keep your lamp of learning . . . burning.

We salute the Class of ' 68 . Good luck ... best wishes ... and more power to you.

What could she possibly be looking for?

Did you have a question - maybe my intelligence is too much for you!

Munch, munch, munch a bunch!

They caught us in the act . . .
Who have they got hidden this time?

Can anyone guess what they are up to?

Pictured above from left to right are: Vicky Perritt, third runner-up, Marcia Johnson, second runner-up; Ray Krutz, first runner-up and alternate; and Catherine Harris, winner of the local American Legion Oratorical Contest.

The contest was held at the Bunnell High School. The topic was on "The United States Constitution."

American Legion $O_{\text {ratory }}$

In physics, Ray, Tony and Hewitt work diligently on a radio . . . Nancy and Mary Anne conduct an important experiment during chemistry . . . In the audio-visual room, Mr. Milcent tests the equipment . . . During agriculture the boys seem to enjoy bagging cabbage . . . The art students, during Christmas season, made decorations to beautify the school. Shown working are Marcia Johnston, Sharon Salyerds, LuLu McNab, and Linda Knight . . . The lst period typing class tries desperately to better their rate.

The sky is falling; the sky is

Would you believe a conference? falling!

Lessons in knifing!

Oh, the pain of it all!
