FLAGLER PALM COAST HIGH SCHOOL HOME OF THE BULLDOGS BUNNELL, FLORIDA

DEDICATION

JOHN CHARLES WESLEY III

He was just a boy, full of life Never knew the pleasure of having a wife An athletic boy, full of fun Shot down by a man, holding a gun.

Would he stay with us, or go away? Only God in His wisdom was to say. Today he was buried in the ground, No longer able to walk around.

He's with his father in heaven above Where there is no sadness only love! Eighteen short years, he was with us here. We all shall miss him, He was such a dear.

Although he is gone from the world down here, Up there, there's no loneliness or fear. Someday we shall meet him up above Where there's no more sorrow, only love.

> Alice Wesley Aug. 13, 1981

"The tragic loss of John's life this summer, touched each and every one of us. We all knew John for his magnificent performances on the football field, but most of all we remember him for his intense love of life, and for the fullness which was John's life.

John may be gone from us now, but his spirit remains. Each time we see a football player get tackled and get up again, or a runner stumble, fall, and get up and continue running, we are reminded of John, and the Spirit and dedication by which he lived."

"Nothing Can Die That Ever Wrought For Truth"

The Student Council has been quite visible this year. The members have a class during the sixth period and have been able to work together on projects. The most appreciated by the students perhaps is the school newspaper to which all students may contribute and in which many are recognized for outstanding achievements. One project that will be much enjoyed when the weather is fair is the area just outside the cafeteria where picnic tables have been placed. Spirit days have been promoted so that students could enjoy something "different." Punk Rock and Hawaiian days were probably the ones that most students were involved in. The student body would like to express appreciation to Mr. Henderson and his Political Science Class.

Enjoying the Hawaiian atmosphere are: Rod Eubank, Miss Campbell, Isaac Jones, Teresa Leggett, Mike Edwards, Anna Lynn Zamba, and Mr. Peterson.
